

WEATHER FORECAST
UTAH—Unsettled Sunday and Monday; warmer with probable showers Sunday.

Fiftieth Year—No. 149.

The Ogden Standard-Examiner

OGDEN CITY, UTAH SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 13, 1920.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Quite often the most interesting news of the day is to be found in the want-ad section.

HARDING AND COOLIDGE ARE NOMINATED Five Passengers Hurt In Park City Wreck

OGDEN MAN IS LISTED AMONG SMASH VICTIMS

Defective Switch Blamed for Accident on Union Pacific Branch Line

WOMAN IS REPORTED DANGEROUSLY HURT

John Murphy, One of the Seven Passengers, Suffers Internal Hurts

(Special Dispatch.)
PARK CITY, June 12.—Five passengers were injured, one dangerously so, when the passenger car of a mixed train left the tracks in going over a switch.
The injured: John Murphy, Ogden, internal injuries; John Porter, Portersville, right ear torn, internal injuries; Mrs. A. P. Kildges, wife of Park City station agent, serious internal injuries; Mrs. William Phillips, internal injuries and bruised; Mildred Phillips, aged 19, hips crushed.
The train was traveling toward Echo. There were seven passengers in the coach of the combination train, two escaping injury.
Railroad officials blame a defective switch for the accident. As the coach passed over the switch it left the tracks and then turned over.
The passenger car was the rear car of the train.
John Murphy, the Ogden man injured, is an engineer but he was traveling as a passenger.
Mrs. Phillips is dangerously injured, according to local physicians.
All the injured were treated at a local hospital.

LOWDEN TELLS WHY HE RELEASED FRIENDS

CHICAGO, June 12.—Fear of a deadlock which he believed would prove detrimental to his party caused Governor Frank O. Lowden to release his delegates on the convention floor at today's session, according to a statement made by him tonight. Governor Lowden said:
"After the eighth ballot, upon which I received a plurality of all votes cast, it was represented to me that the delegates were becoming restive under the delay. Fearing a protracted deadlock which I believed would have been detrimental to the interests of the country I decided to release all delegates and advised them to use their best judgment as to whom they should support. I have great confidence in the ability and character of the successful candidate, shall support him with all heartiness and believe the ticket will be elected. The Republican party has not had such an opportunity for service in half a century."
"For the friendship formed during this campaign and for the loyal support of so many fine patriotic men and women, I shall never cease to be grateful."
Senator Johnson said he would not make a statement tonight on the nomination.

HAYS IS REELECTED REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN

CHICAGO, June 12.—Will H. Hays, of Indiana, was tonight re-elected chairman of the Republican national committee.
Mr. Hays was re-elected at a meeting of the new national committee presided over by Henry McCoy, national committee member from the Philippines. Hays M. Daugherty, the national manager for Senator Harding, appeared before the committee, and on behalf of the presidential candidate requested that something prompt, snappy and positive be done forthwith to launch the fall campaign. The work ought not to be delayed, said Mr. Daugherty.
He asked that a sub-committee be appointed to confer with Senator Harding on the selection of assistant managers and an executive committee.
Edwin T. Thayer of Indiana, was re-elected sergeant-at-arms of the national committee.

JOHNSON SPEAKS, BUT BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

CHICAGO, June 12.—Senator Hiram Johnson of California, made a number of statements about the Republican convention and its conduct before a meeting of delegates and others from his state tonight.
"I know from the start that I would never have had a chance for the nomination if I had gone into the convention before a meeting of delegates and others from his state tonight."
He made some remarks about influence having been applied to delegates, but the largest part of the address which was made quietly was cut off when doors were closed against spectators who tried to get within hearing distance.

FOR G. O. P. PRESIDENT

HARDING.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT

COOLIDGE

MRS. HARDING PLEASED OVER CHOICE OF G. O. P.

Wife of Nominee Says Her Husband Is Worthy of Honor Given Him

CHICAGO, June 12.—Caught at the hotel to which he rushed from the Coliseum after his nomination Senator Harding made no formal statement but declared he was "very happy" and "deeply grateful to his friends."
The Republican nominee showed plainly his elation when he emerged from his rooms with Mrs. Harding to face a battery of camera men.
There was a burst of laughter in which Mrs. Harding joined and the cameras clicked a lively accompaniment as the photographers adopted the suggestion.
Mrs. Harding was beaming with happiness. Asked for some comment upon her feelings as to the distinction given her husband by his fellow Republicans, she said:
"I am tremendously pleased, of course. But I think my husband is worthy of this honor and I am content to be in the reflected light."
Going to Capital.
Senator and Mrs. Harding were busy with preparations to enable them to catch a train leaving for Washington within a few hours. The senator had been up nearly all night in the round of conferences with party chieftains which led to his nomination and today spent hours in the heat and strain at the Coliseum while the battle from which he emerged a victor by overwhelming vote was being brought to its dramatic close.
The pleasure of the victory had relaxed the physical strain, however, and the Ohio senator showed little evidence of it after he had bathed and put on fresh clothing.

LUCKY SON ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF HARDING, SR.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Today happens to be the birthday of Senator Harding's father, George T. Harding of Marion, Ohio. The senator's birthday falls on the coming election date, November 2, when he will be 55 years old.
Senator and Mrs. Harding entertained a small party of friends at dinner tonight. Their guests were: Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee; Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Sawyer of Marion, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scobey of San Antonio, Texas; C. S. Cregar of San Antonio, formerly of Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vissering of Chicago.
The senator's party will leave at 11:45 p. m. for Washington.

WARREN G. HARDING

Warren G. Harding is 35 years old and was born in Blooming Grove, O., the son of a country doctor and the eldest of eight children. Harding lived the life of a farmer during his boyhood and attended the rural schools, earning his way through Ohio Central College.
He worked at various trades to send himself through college, one summer painting barns, the next driving a truck and a third year teaching school at the age of 17.
But it was the print shop that attracted young Harding most. He learned the printing trade from top to bottom and in 1884 took to aid the alliance politically, morally and economically, during the many years of hard work ahead.
Several resolutions were passed at the final session, among them one thanking the press of the world for its sympathy and aid, and another congratulating the twenty-one countries which since the last congress was held had given the vote to women.
One of the resolutions felicitates woman on the fact that the league of nations admits women to all its activities.

MRS. CATT'S SPEECH CLOSES CONVENTION

GENEVA, June 12.—A farewell speech by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, as president of the International Suffrage alliance, officially ended the organization's congress which has been in progress here for the past week. She called on the women of America to aid the alliance politically, morally and economically, during the many years of hard work ahead.
Several resolutions were passed at the final session, among them one thanking the press of the world for its sympathy and aid, and another congratulating the twenty-one countries which since the last congress was held had given the vote to women.
One of the resolutions felicitates woman on the fact that the league of nations admits women to all its activities.

TOKIO REPORTS SAY LENINE IS OVERTHROWN

TOKIO, June 10.—Information that the Moscow government has been overthrown, that Leon Trotsky has been killed and that Premier Lenine has escaped, said to come from the Vladivostok government, is printed in an extra edition of the Asahi Shimbun. A new government headed by General Brusiloff is reported to have been established.

London reports of May 19 had General Alexis Brusiloff, former commander in chief of the Russian armies, in supreme authority at Moscow, in place of Nikolai Lenine, the bolshevik premier. Official London quarters, however, indicated reluctance in accepting the report as a fact.

TWO HUNDRED ARMED KOREANS ARE DEFEATED

SEOUL, Korea, June 10.—Two hundred armed Koreans, who attempted to cross the frontier into China north of Ham-Gyeng, were defeated in the battle which ensued, losing 24 killed, says an official communique issued today. Two Japanese were wounded.

Kling, a business man of Marion. They have no children.
Harding entered politics in 1899, serving in the state senate from that year until 1903. He became lieutenant-governor in 1903 and served until 1906.
Although he obtained the nomination easily, Harding was defeated in a race for governor on the Republican ticket in 1910. The Ohio voters sent him to the United States senate in 1914 with a majority of more than 102,000 despite the fact that in the same year Ohio passed to the Democratic column.
In the senate Harding was an active worker for the preparedness program. He was a member of the foreign relations committee of the senate.
While a great deal of Harding's business experience was as publisher of the Star, he is identified with a number of large business enterprises and a member of the board of directors of several of them. He is a bank director and a trustee of the Trinity Episcopal church of which he is a regular attendant.

GOVERNOR PLEASED TO BE GIVEN HONOR

BOSTON, June 12.—Governor Coolidge received word of his nomination in his apartment at the Adams house in company with Mrs. Coolidge and his aide, Captain Charles S. Riley, and his secretary, Henry F. Long.
The governor indicated that he was very well pleased with the honor.

Word had reached the governor a few minutes before a party of newspaper men were admitted to his rooms. The reporters, although expecting that the nomination would be made, had not heard of the actual fact when they were ushered into the governor's presence, and for a brief interval the interview took the form of a questioning of the governor rather than congratulations. It was several minutes before some of the governor's party, realizing that the newspaper men had not received the news, set them right on the situation.

TAFT SAYS TICKET SUITS HIS FANCY

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 12.—Former President William H. Taft tonight sent the following telegram to Senator Harding:
"I congratulate you most sincerely on your nomination. I am confident of your election and predict for you a most useful and successful administration."
In a telegram of congratulation to Governor Coolidge Mr. Taft said: "The ticket of Harding and Coolidge should sweep the country."

APPOINT COMMITTEES TO NOTIFY CANDIDATES

CHICAGO, June 12.—On motion of Mr. Hert of Kentucky, Senator Lodge was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Senator Harding of his nomination for president and William Allen White of Kansas, chairman of the committee to notify Governor Coolidge of his nomination as vice president.

HERE'S HOW UTAH DELEGATES AT CHICAGO VOTED

Senator Reed Smoot Voted for Harding From First to Last Ballot

Utah's eight delegates at Chicago succumbed only in part to the effects of the landslide for Senator Harding, according to Associated Press and private dispatches from the Coliseum.
During the four ballots Friday evening, Utah's delegation voted as follows: One for Harding, two for Lowden, and five for Wood.
A telegram received by the Standard-Examiner late today said that it was Senator Reed Smoot who voted for Harding from the state.
On the fifth ballot Saturday Utah's front remained unchanged—one for Harding, two for Lowden and five for Wood.
But on the sixth ballot one of the delegates went over to Harding and Utah voted: Two for Harding, two for Lowden and four for Wood.
The result was the same on the seventh ballot, and on the eighth ballot. Then General Wood lost two more of Utah delegates for the report of the ninth ballot shows Utah voted two for Wood, two for Lowden and four for Harding.
One delegate remained faithful to the general to the end. The report of the tenth ballot disclosed that of the eight Utah votes one went to Wood, two to Lowden and five to Harding.
Before the ninth ballot was taken The Standard-Examiner received a telegram from the Coliseum to the effect that Senator Smoot predicted the nomination of Senator Harding. The telegram said Senator Smoot was one of Harding's staunchest supporters. This message said, also, that C. P. Cardon of Logan was the second man of the delegation to switch to Harding.

MILLIONAIRE AUTHOR TO MARRY EASTERN WOMAN

NEW YORK, June 12.—Hobart Chatfield Taylor, millionaire author of Santa Barbara, Cal., and Mrs. Estelle Harboure Stillman, daughter of George H. Harboure of New York today obtained a marriage license here.
Mr. Chatfield Taylor is a widower and Mrs. Stillman is a widow. No date has been set for the wedding, which is to be in St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopal church.

HOOPER CONGRATULATES HARDING ON NOMINATION

NEW YORK, June 12.—Herbert Hoover tonight sent the following telegram to Senator Harding:
"I hasten to tender you my most cordial personal congratulations on nomination and on the great opportunity which it affords you to interpret the desires of the American people."

OHIO SENATOR WINS WHEN TENTH BALLOT SHATTERS DEADLOCK

Managers of "Big Three" Candidates Unable to Stop Drift After It Begins; Collapse of Lowden Forces Puts Harding Over; Coolidge Is His Running Mate

CHICAGO, June 12.—Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio, was nominated for the presidency today by the Republican national convention after a deadlock which lasted for nine ballots and which finally forced out of the running all the original favorites.
As his running mate, the convention named Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of a combination of the Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin.
The collapse of the forces of Governor Frank O. Lowden and their transfer in large part to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over.
General Wood lost heavily, however, when the Harding drift began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders in the early balloting yesterday, also went steadily down hill.

HARDING COMES FROM BEHIND.
Entering the convention four days ago as a candidate distinctly of the "dark horse" class, Senator Harding got only 64 votes on the first ballot yesterday and on the second he dropped to 56. When the convention adjourned last night at the end of the fourth ballot he had 61.
In all-night conferences among the party chiefs, however, he was mentioned many times as the most likely to break the nomination deadlock should neither Wood, Lowden nor Johnson take a commanding lead today. They all failed to do so, Wood and Lowden running a neck and neck race for leadership on four ballots while the strength of the California candidate dwindled steadily.

OHIO SENATOR CLIMBS STEADILY.
Meantime Harding pushed his total to 133, individual delegates from many states swinging to him from the columns of the leaders and of various favorite sons. The Johnson managers, fearing a landslide was impending, then made a last play to save the fortunes of their candidate. They moved to recess for a couple of hours in order to take an inventory and seek a new combination. The Wood and Lowden forces, both virtually at the peak of their strength, but disheartened at the long string of ballots without material gains, fell in with the recess plan and the convention adopted it.

FATE OF CANDIDATES SEALED.
In the dramatic succession of conferences that followed, the fate of the candidates virtually was sealed. Some of the Wood and Lowden managers tried ineffectually for an agreement which would hold their delegates in line and kill off the Harding boom. Some tried to get a Wood-Lowden-Johnson agreement to adjourn until Monday without making a nomination. There also was a conference between Johnson and Harding supporters in which the Ohio's supporters tried without success to have the remaining Johnson strength swung to Harding.

PARLEYS BEGIN TO BEAR FRUIT.
It was the parleys between the Harding and Lowden men, however, which apparently bore the most fruit when the balloting began again, for Governor Lowden came to the convention during the ninth roll call and, reversing a previous plan to go before the convention itself, issued instructions from behind the scenes releasing his instructed delegates. Senator Harding also was in the rear of the coliseum platform during the voting and conferred with Chairman Hays.

STATES FLOP FOR HARDING.
Almost as soon as the alphabetical call of states began after the recess the ground swell for Harding demonstrated that it could not be forestalled. Connecticut, when her name was called, took thirteen of her fourteen votes from Lowden and gave them to Harding. In Florida he got seven from Wood, and then Kentucky, almost from the first a solid Lowden state, flopped completely into the Harding column.

Amid scenes of rising enthusiasm other blocks of Lowden delegates followed suit while many of the routed Wood supporters also went into the Harding camp. By the end of the roll call Senator Harding had rolled up a total of 374, putting him far into the lead and several score of votes nearer the nomination than any candidate had been before.

STRENGTH OF THE "BIG THREE" WANES OUT.
Lowden, at the end of the ninth had only 121 votes left out of the 207 with which he ended the eighth and General Wood's strength had fallen from 239 on the eighth to 249 on the ninth. Johnson dropped from 87 to 82. As the tenth roll call began delegates quit Lowden, Wood and Johnson right and left, and the big hall was in almost continuous applause as state after state announced accession to the Harding standard. It was reserved for Pennsylvania to add the crowning touch of enthusiasm. When the Keystone state was reached the Ohio senator needed 32 votes to nominate him, and Pennsylvania gave him 60.

SPROUL AUTHOR OF CLIMAX.
It was Governor Sproul, himself, the candidate of his state on every preceding ballot and mentioned many times as a possible "dark horse" to break the deadlock, who announced the big Pennsylvania vote for Harding. Entering the coliseum for the first time since the balloting began, he made his way to the Pennsylvania standard and, amid cheers, released the delegates from longer supporting him. Then he took a poll, got the floor and threw in the winning Harding votes.
A demonstration of several minutes followed, most of the delegates and spectators standing and cheering while a procession carrying large pictures of the candidate and standards of some of the states that supported him took up its march around the hall. But it was too tired a convention after the grueling excitement of two sweltering days of balloting to long keep up such a demonstration. Senator Lodge, presiding, rapped for order, and the delegates did not argue with him.
When it was seen that a candidate had been nominated, the customary changing of votes began with a half dozen who had voted for other candidates switching over so as to appear in the winning column on the last ballot. Most of Illinois deserted its governor and many of the Wood men, too, asked to have their votes recorded for Harding.

FORMER LEADERS DROP FAR.
The final check up showed 692 for Harding, with only 12 left supporting Lowden, 157 for Wood and 80 for Johnson. At their best, earlier in the day, the Wood people had mustered 312 votes and the Lowden forces 311. Johnson's high point was 148, on the third ballot yesterday.

A motion to make the nomination unanimous, was passed in a great chorus of approval, but when opportunity was given for negative votes there were some "noes" from Wisconsin whose delegation throughout the day had voted amid hisses and catcalls almost solidly for Senator Robert M. La Follette.

COOLIDGE CAUSES ENTHUSIASM.
The plan to nominate Senator Lenroot for the vice presidency had the backing of many of the men who had helped put Harding over, but the name of Governor Coolidge stirred the delegates and galleries to repeated cheering and he was swept into second place on the ticket before the first roll call had gone two-thirds of its length. Again it was Pennsylvania which furnished the winning votes.

Governor Coolidge got 674 votes to 146 for Senator Lenroot and 68 for Governor Allen of Kansas. Several others got scattering support without being placed formally in nomination. The result was greeted with another demonstration and there was renewed cheering a few minutes later when the tired delegates were told that their work was done. It was early evening by the time adjournment was reached but before midnight hundreds had checked out and were on their way.

There was no official total of the final ballot. Near the close of the ballot there was a wholesale switching of votes to the Harding camp and then a motion to make it unanimous. This motion failed because of the opposition of the Wisconsin delegation.